Dear esteemed Friend

62

Though I feel my inability to write, yet I take my pen to answer your letter of the 26th of June. I felt really gratified to receive such a letter from you. As to your faithfulness to the slaves cause I never doubted, but I think you ought to take especial care of yourself.

You know the weakness of your lungs, and for your own sake and that of the cause I hope you will not run too great a risk, for we can ill spare you.

I went to Boston this year to partake of that intellectual feast. To have had an opportunity of hearing some of your private conversation would I have no doubt been edifying to me.

But I had a continual intellectual feast at the Graham House, and I feel greatly refreshed by being at Boston. You inform me that you expect to visit Europe on a mission of love, which I entirely approve of, therefore I herewith send a certificate of deposit, of a small sum in order to enable you to take care of yourself and not to be a steerage passenger. The Lord takes care of those that take care of themselves you know.

My particular friend, Charles

B Taylor of Pittsburg Pa is now at my house, and wishing to be remembered sends $10. My sister-in-law Sarah Williams sends $3 and my wife and myself the balance. We unite in sending our best regards to you and your family. May your mission of love be attended with success, and that the God of the oppressed may protect you while passing over that vast expanse of water, and when your mission shall be ended safely return you to the bosom of your family and friends, is the ardent wish and prayer of your friend,
George Doughty
